 Summary: Title: Images of Aquarena's Past Author: Bibb Underwood Publisher: San Marco's Daily Record Date: 10/23/09
 San Marcos -- Three generations of the Rogers family made significant contributions to the history of San Marcos. A member of the fourth generation recorded that history. Doni Weber, great-granddaughter of A.B. Rogers, has written and compiled a comprehensive narrative and pictorial history of what was once the defining landmark of San Marcos. In her new book, "Images of America: Aquarena Springs," Doni has captured, not only the chronology and wonder that was Aquarena during its heyday, but the book provides a rare look into the era of a simpler life. It defines what entertainment was before the introduction of the air-conditioned behemoths that ply the interstate highways and the construction of the gargantuan theme parks, i.e., Sea World, Fiesta Texas and Six Flags. Doni will have a book signing at Hastings Books, 917 Highway 80, in San Marcos from 1 to 3 p.m. Saturday. Royalties from the sale of the book will go to fund the restoration and maintenance of the glass-bottom boats now in use at...
