O. , 2006. LC Number: KF26 . F6 2005o OCLC Number: (OCoLC)65518035 Subject: AIDS vaccines. Excerpt: . . . 11 document how a young girls risk of HIV infection increases significantly as a result of having an older partner. Both papers were clear that this practice of cross-generational sex was an important factor which explained why young women are six times more likely to be HIV positive than young men in Africa. And here I pause to ask you, honorable members of this distinguished committee, are we really doing everything that we can to protect young girls and women from HIV AIDS We want them to abstain, or at the bare minimum, delay their sexual debut, but it will be difficult, if not impossible, for them to do so if they are not protected from sexual abuse, exploitation, economic disempowerment, poverty - the norms that encourage sex with older men for support and survival. I am confident that this problem of cross-generational sex slices across the politics that color the current, and highly polarized, debate on how best to combat HIV AIDS in Africa. People of all political and spiritual persuasions are deeply distressed and disturbed by the abuse of girls and young women. But if that is, in fact, the case, why is so little being done to address these problems With all the research that has been conducted, its certainly not because we dont know that its happening. I would like to think its not because we dont care. I believe it is because the problem is so pervasive, so deeply rooted...
