Createspace, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 254 x 203 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Suzy is having trouble in school. Oh, no she bumped into a tree again! What will happen when Suzy has to go to the eye doctor? Find out how she deals with having to wear glasses. This book is for parents who are trying to encourage their child to wear his or her glasses. It will teach your child about what to expect when they go to the eye doctor. It will help your child feel good about wearing glasses and teach them a lesson in self confidence. This book has one color page of Suzy so your child can have fun designing and coloring their own creative glasses for her to wear. Also included are three fun 3-D illustrations that pop off the page. Discover how Suzy s grandmother helps her understand what s happening to her eyesight by comparing her with the beautiful owl that lives in her shade garden. Go with Suzy to the eye doctor and find out what kind of instruments he uses to look at the health of her eyes. This book also includes helpful illustrations and definitions of eye care terms. It would be a fun book to use to help a child who may be writing a report for school on eye doctors or eye care. It educates as it entertains. This book is recommended for 3rd. to 6th. grade.
