As a Methodist pastor I am rivited by this fascinating book by Rev. Dr. Mary Jonson exploring the Healing Heritage of The Counseling Ministry Of The Church . This book is a monumental achievement and offers a fresh integrated perspective for anyone interested in Holistic Healing, counseling, or pastoral counseling. Ministers, counselors, nurses, physicians, therapists, pastors, social workers, and lay people will find this superb scholarly work both a page turner AND an invaluable guide and lively practical resource for diverse healing ministries. I cannot reccomend it enough! A must book for your library! -Pastor E. Davis, MTS, M. Div. Dr. Johnson offers a lifetime of practical experience, research, insight, and impressive scholarly study in this pioneering work that brings together vast areas of knowledge into an integrated whole offering vital practical and theoretical skills. It has influenced both my life and healing vocation deeply. -Carolyn Barber, RN Love In Action is a pioneering work bringing a Holistic perspective on Healing to the field of Pastoral Counseling, Pastoral Care, and Clinical Christian Mental Health Counseling. This incredible book offers both essential information and great wisdom for any one intersted in this area and is an invaluable resource for both experts or beginners in this field. Both practical advice and extensive original academic research lay out a basis, plan, and purpose for healing that is both holistic, Holy Spirit infused, and transforming. Anyone will be richly rewarded by the knowledge and expertise contained in this profound yet practical work written by an experienced pastor and expert clinical Christian psychotherapist. A must resource for all- including any pastors who are interested in the practical, theoretical, biblicaland spiritual dimensions of healing....
