Beauty of color flows from balance and measure. Tempered sensations - not extremes - are the source of refined pleasure, and in this system the crude extremes of red, yellow, and blue which make the bill-poster hideous are replaced by those moderate degrees of color which abound in the best decorative and fine art. A color sense thus trained by accurate scales instead of the prevalent guesswork, develops fine discriminations. These model lessons have been tested by teachers of long experience, and when accompanied by the Color Sphere, Color Tree, Color Atlas, and special materials designed for the study, they cannot fail to strengthen the color thought and build a complete image of all color relations.
