White Bird Publications, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Victor the Dragon dreamed of winning the Dragonland Lance. The beautiful lance was the highest honor a young dragon could receive in Dragonland. He admired his reflection in the mirror and knew he looked good. Winning wasn't so hard. The thought of his victory filled him with joy. Then, Mama appeared, breathing fire, and Vic learned that winning might not be as simple as he had first thought. Children will delight in the fun and colorful story of Vic the Dragon. The illustrations are bright and vivid and the verse teaches an important lesson for today's children. Students will want to read the humorous story again and again. Parents will appreciate the lessons on planning and organization. Ages 4 - 8 will enjoy hearing the book and seeing the beautiful artwork, and elementary school age children up through 4th grade will enjoy reading the book on their own.
